

Pair of John T. Cook Percussion Pocket Pistols

Serial Number NVN

£2500.00

DESCRIPTION

Delightful pair of percussion pocket pistols made by John T. Cook of New Street, Birmingham. Beautifully made with 1 7/8" octagonal screw off barrels, elaborate scroll engraving, clam shell panels, dolphin head hammers, folding triggers, thumb safety and chequered handles with grip caps with traps. They are neatly presented in the original box with their powder flask, turnscrew, barrel key, oil bottle, shot mould and it even includes some percussion caps and lead shot. They are neat pair of 19th century pistols that would complement anyone's gunroom, office or home.

SPECIFICATION

