DESCRIPTION

Beretta 12g ASE De Luxe Sporting O/U Shotgun.

Beretta’s venerable ASE90 series was started in 1987 and in 1996 the name was simply changed to “ASE”. The De Luxe featured upgrades in wood and has a hand engraved receiver signed by the engraver.

The gun featured here has 2004 date codes on the 75 cm *Boehler*Antinit* Steel barrels (roughly 29 ¾”) with factory Mobilechokes and a 10mm to 8mm Tapered Sporting vent rib with a single fiber optic front bead.

Trigger plate action has SO type lock up with a double Kersten cross bolt, single selective trigger and non-automatic safety. The receiver is engraved in an Italian Ornamental Floral pattern and has a bright finish. The engraving is signed “G. Ferraglio”.

Highly figured, honey colored walnut stock has a full pistol grip with right hand palm swell and a Schnabel forend. The LOP is 14 13/16” over a 1” factory rubber pad.

Gun in furnished in the factory hard case w/ full complement of accessories and paperwork and two chokes only (IC/M). The gun has been shot but is in 99% condition overall, with only small handling mark on the forend. A very nice gun in a grade that does not turn up often.
